

THE MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE MRAC HELD FEB.. 19th.

Pres. Kircher called the meeting to order at 8:10 PM And the rollcall revealed 24 members and 10 visitors present, a total attendance of 34.

The Secy read the minutes of the Club meetings of Jan., 8th, 15th, 29th, 22nd, Feb., 5th, and 12th. All these minutes were accepted as read.

Pres. Kircher announced the MRAC Bowling Party to be held Feb., 28th at The Badger Alleys at 8:00 at a charge of 25¢ a person in addition to the bowling fees. The allies are located on the S.W. corner of 27th and Walnut Sts. and we have reserved the entire second floor.

Kircher stated that Wally Wallace, W9EYH won the election for SCM in Wis. over W9GFL of Green Bay 101 to 78.

Joe Collins our Picnic Chairman stated that the MRAC Picnic will be held Aug., 2nd at breezy Point on Lake Oconomowoc. He went on to extoll the beauties and advantages of this particular picnic spot.

Collins and Kircher told of joining The Auxilliary Police Force and stressed the need of qualified radio operators and service men in that unit of Civillian Defense. Mr. Felber stated that he had registered also and he believed that such registration will be necessary for any authorized amateur operation in any Defense setup.

Geo. Pfister who was recently promoted to Radioman Second Class as well as an Instructor in Radio dropped in for a visit and spoke briefly.

Mr. Ciganek told us of some of his trials and tribulations in controlling the younger generation incidental to his new job as instructor at the NYA. He outlined their training course in a very interesting fashion.

The Secy outlined a communication from ARRL hdqts. in regard to the newly developed code instruction course for helping John Q. Public master the art of brasspounding as sponsered by affiliated radio clubs. Mr. Felber volunteered his services as Chairman of the Code Instruction Program.

Mr. Arones the speaker of the evening Gave a very interesting account of his early experiences as a commercial radio operator.

Mr. Felber conducted the Club Raffle and the meeting was declared adjourned at 9:50PM.

Respectfully Submitted,

Reid H. Burrows Secy.